

Get Connected!

It's 9 a.m. on Monday morning. Twenty staff members have called in sick. There are hundreds of emails that need attention. And calls are coming in as the result of last week's promotional campaign. You feel like no one else has to deal with anything like this . . . or do they?

Join the Society of Workforce Planning Professionals

You're not alone! There are people all over the world dealing with the same issues you are. But how do you connect with them?

Become a part of an organization designed specifically to facilitate professional development of workforce planning professionals. SWPP provides its membership with a variety of benefits, including quarterly newsletters, regional networking meetings, online forums, an annual conference, and more.

Membership Levels

There are three distinct levels of membership in the SWPP: individual membership, site membership, and corporate membership. One of these memberships is right for you!

Individual Membership – $295 USD

An individual member enjoys all the benefits and privileges of SWPP membership, including full access to the SWPP website, a printed version of our quarterly newsletter, e-mail tip of the week, job posting, discount on the registration fee for the Annual Conference and CWPP certification, free web seminars throughout the year, access to on-demand WFM courses, and a free registration for regional networking meetings.

Site Membership – $595 USD

A site membership allows a company to register up to three employees in SWPP for a lower price. The members do not have to be located at the same site — just within the same company. Each individual registered within a site membership is entitled to all the benefits of SWPP membership.

Corporate Membership – $4995 USD

Corporate memberships allow companies to register an unlimited number of employees in SWPP for one price. Each individual registered within a corporate membership is entitled to all the benefits of SWPP membership. SWPP corporate members also receive the opportunity to add an unlimited number of employees in our sister association, the Quality Assurance & Training Connection (QATC).
